

PRE-SPANISH-3 SELF EVALUATION

I find learning Spanish Very Easy Easy Somewhat Easy Hard Impossible

After taking Spanish 2, I feel that I am...

- extremely well-prepared for Spanish 3
- well-prepared for Spanish 3
- somewhat prepared for Spanish 3
- not very prepared for Spanish 3
- not at all prepared for Spanish 3

Over the summer, I feel that I have...

- forgotten nothing from Spanish 2
- forgotten little from Spanish 2
- forgotten some from Spanish 2
- forgotten most from Spanish 2
- forgotten all from Spanish 2

I would rate my Spanish ability in the following areas as:

	A Expert	B Advanced	C Intermediate	D Novice	F Beginner
Listening	I understand everything that I hear.	I understand most of what I hear.	I understand some of what I hear.	I understand little of what I hear.	I understand nothing that I hear.
Reading	I understand everything that I read.	I understand most of what I read.	I understand some of what I read.	I understand little of what I read.	I understand nothing that I read.
Writing	I have no trouble writing a 100-word essay.	I have little trouble writing a 100-word essay.	I have some trouble writing a 100-word essay.	I would have much difficulty writing a 100-word essay.	I could not write a 100-word essay.
Speaking	I can easily speak for two minutes.	I can speak for two minutes with little difficulty.	I might have some difficulty in speaking for two minutes.	I would have much difficulty in speaking for two minutes.	I could not speak for two minutes.

Last year, my second-semester grade in Spanish 2 was: A B C D F

I plan to earn an A B C D F in Spanish 3.

- I plan to:
- stop taking Spanish after this year.
 - stop taking Spanish after Spanish 4/AP Spanish.
 - continue taking Spanish in college.
 - plan to get a degree in Spanish.

I'm taking Spanish because...

- my parents made me
- to get into college
- there was nothing else left
- learning languages interests me
- this is a Spanish class?

My native language is: _____.

I also speak _____ in addition to English and my native language.